38.5 Arising from M23/30 Snow and Ice Clearance Policy,

40.4 The Committee was informed of a situation at another university where a member of staff had brought a civil claim against a senior manager as well as the university itself. The university had not contributed to the individual's legal costs. Members noted that where analogous situations had occurred at Loughborough University in the past, the staff member's legal costs had been met by the University. It was noted, however, that staff needed to have complied with relevant University policies to ensure that the University could provide financial support in such occurrences. The Director of Finance was asked to clarify the current position. ACTION: Secretary to inform Director of Finance
